

CHAPTER 8.

EXPENSES OF INAUGURATION.

S. F. 80.

AN ACT making an appropriation to defray the expenses of the inaugural ceremonies.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

1 SECTION 1. Appropriation for expenses of inauguration. There
2 is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not 3 otherwise appropriated, the sum of four hundred and twenty-six dol-
4 lars and forty-six cents ($426.46) or so much thereof as may be neces-
5 sary, to pay the expenses incurred on account of the inaugural cere-
6 monies and reception. Warrants shall be drawn upon the treasury
7 for the sum herein appropriated in favor of the adjutant general upon 8 the filing of the vouchers therefor with the auditor of state.

1 SEC. 2. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take
2 effect and be in force from and after the publication in the Des Moines
3 Register and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published at Des 4 Moines, Iowa.

Approved February 8, A. D. 1917.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Des Moines Register
February 12, 1917, and in the Des Moines Capital February 10, 1917.

CHAPTER 9.

PRINTING OF BILLS AND CLASSIFIED INDEXES.

SUBSTITUTE FOR S. F. 1.

AN ACT to repeal paragraph five (5) of section one hundred thirty-eight (138) of the supplemental supplement to the code, 1915, and to enact a substitute therefor; to provide for the preparation, printing and distribution of a classified index to legislative bills and making appropriation to defray the expense thereof; and to legalize the printing of bills for the thirty-seventh general assembly heretofore ordered.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Printing and distribution of house and senate
1 bills—compensation. That paragraph five (5) of section one hun-
2 dred thirty-eight (138) of the supplemental supplement to the code, 3 1915, be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in 4 lieu thereof, to wit:

5 "5. All senate and house bills shall be printed on the lightest possi-
6 ble paper suitable for such purpose, to be determined by the state
7 document editor. The size of the paper shall be approximately eight 8 (8) inches by ten (10) inches, so as to cut with the minimum amount

9 of waste from standard stock size. The type used shall be ten point, 10 and of the largest face practicable, as directed by the document editor.
 11 The lines shall be leaded with pica slugs. Each line of each section 12 shall, on the left margin thereof, be consecutively numbered, com-13 mencing with the numeral one (1) for each section. Said bills shall 14 be so printed that each line of the typewritten original bill shall con-
 15 stitute a line of the printed bill. For printing house and senate bills, 16 five hundred (500) or less, the state printer may charge one dollar and 17 twenty-five cents ($1.25) per page, said charge to include composition 18 and press work, and twenty cents ($0.20) for each additional one 19 hundred (100) copies for each form of eight (8) pages or less. When 20 the state printer is advised by the document editor that a bill issuing 21 from one house of the general assembly may also issue from the other, 22 he shall keep the type standing for a period of three (3) days after the 23 printing of the same is completed, and the second order for copies
 24 thereof shall be treated as additional copies and charged for accord-25 ingly, save that, for each form of four (4) pages or less, a re-imposi-
 26 tion fee of forty cents ($0.40) shall be allowed. No temporarily bound 27 copies of either the journal or of the bills shall be furnished except to 28 the members of the general assembly, the governor, the lieutenant 29 governor, the law librarian, the curator of the historical building, the 30 attorney general and the law reporter, secretary of the senate and 31 chief clerk of the house, and to such other state officers or employees 32 as the chairman of the committee on printing of either house may in 33 writing during the session designate to the document editor."

SEC. 2. Classified indexes—duty of document editor—appro-
 1 priation. It is hereby made the duty of the document editor, at the 2 direction of the committee on printing of either house, to prepare a 3 classified index of bills, giving detailed information as to the status of 4 all pending legislation, and to have same printed in concise pamphlet 5 form at such intervals and in such numbers as such committee shall 6 designate, the same to contain such information and data, arranged 7 under both serial number and subject, as will give to the members of 8 the legislature the status of each bill. The said index shall be promptly 9 printed and bound by the state printer and binder, respectively, under 10 the direction of the document editor. Subsequent editions of said
 11 index during the same session shall be issued in a cumulative form, 12 and the separate index of senate and house bills may be bound in one 13 volume. For the purpose of the employment of such assistance as 14 may be required by the document editor in the preparation of said in-15 dex, there is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treas-16 ury not otherwise appropriated the sum of eighty ($80.00) per 17 month during each legislative session. Said appropriation for the 18 work attending the preparation of the index for the present session 19 shall be available immediately upon the taking effect of this act, and 20 for subsequent sessions upon the legal organization of the two houses.

1 SEC. 3. Retroactive effect of act. The printing of bills for the 2 thirty-seventh general assembly which has already been done accord-
 3 ing to the provisions of this act is hereby legalized and this act made 4 retroactive in regard thereto.

1 SEC. 4. This act being deemed of immediate importance, shall take
 2 effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Des Moines

3 Capital and in the Des Moines Register, newspapers published in Des
4 Moines, Iowa.

Approved February 8, A. D. 1917.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Des Moines Capital February 10, 1917, and in the Des Moines Register February 12, 1917.
